CAREER SERVICES OFFICE

Employers are invited to use the placement services of the Georgia State University College of Law for their hiring needs.

The Career Services Office can arrange on-campus interviews. If you are unable to come on campus, we can collect students' résumés and forward them to you. The Career Services Office can assist you with immediate job openings by posting a job notice so that our law students and graduates may contact you directly. We will post part-time, summer, temporary, and full-time positions. Additionally, the Career Services Office maintains information on starting salaries, which employers are welcome to review. The Career Services Office will be happy to assist you in meeting your hiring needs.

To arrange for placement services contact:
