ORDER ON FIREMAN'S FUND INSURANCE COMPANY'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

On July 10, 2009, Counsel appeared before this Court to present oral argument on Defendant/Third-Party Plaintiff Fireman's Fund Insurance Company's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. After hearing the arguments made by counsel and reviewing the briefs submitted on the motions and the record in the case, the Court finds as follows:

I. Facts

This case arises out of the construction of a 192-bed state forensics hospital in Milledgeville, Georgia ("the Project"). The Project was designed for the Georgia Department of Human Resources to be used to house detainees awaiting adjudication as to their competence to stand trial. Plaintiff, Georgia State Financing and Investment Commission ("GSFIC"), is the State agency that procures projects for use by other State agencies. Defendant LPS Construction Company, Inc. ("LPS") was hired by GSFIC to construct the Project, and served as the general contractor. Fireman's Fund Insurance Company ("Fireman's Fund") is the performance bond surety for LPS. Defendant Perkins & Will ("P&W") was hired by GSFIC as the Project architect, and was in charge of contract administration.

GSFIC has filed suit against LPS, Fireman's Fund, and additional Defendants complaining of extensive construction defects throughout the Project. In turn, LPS and Fireman's Fund have filed third-party complaints against all of LPS's subcontractors on the Project.

II. Standard

A court should grant a motion for summary judgment pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 9-11-56 when the moving party shows that no genuine issue of material fact remains to be tried and that the undisputed facts, viewed in the light most favorable to the non-movant, warrant summary judgment as a matter of law. Lau's Corp., Inc. v. Haskins, 261 Ga. 491, 491 (1991).

III. Fireman's Fund's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

Fireman's Fund is the performance bond surety for LPS. Fireman's Fund has filed thirdparty complaints against LPS's subcontractors asserting subrogation, breach of contract, indemnification and contribution claims. Fireman's Fund has moved for partial summary judgment arguing that if a subcontractor is entitled to summary judgment because there is no evidence of its defective work, then Fireman's Fund is entitled to summary judgment to the extent of GSFIC's claims arising out of that work.

Fireman's Fund's liability to GSFIC arises from the performance bond, which is entirely separate and independent from LPS's contracts with its subcontractors. If LPS's work or its subcontractors' work is found to be defective, Fireman's Fund may be liable on its performance bond. On the other hand, if there is no evidence of defective work by any particular subcontractor, Fireman's Fund may still be liable on the performance bond based on the liability of LPS. The Motion for Partial Summary Judgment is hereby DENIED.

SO ORDERED this 21st day of July, 2009.
