November/December 2007

Stall Times

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.gsu.edu/univ_lib_stalltimes

Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.gsu.edu/univ_lib_stalltimes/8

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the University Library Publications at ScholarWorks @ Georgia State University. It has been accepted for inclusion in University Library Stall Times by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks @ Georgia State University. For more information, please contact scholarworks@gsu.edu.
What's Up with the Library

Are you confused about printing in the library?

✵ The cost of printing is 5 cents per page.
✵ Auxiliary Services adds $3 to your card at the beginning of each semester.
✵ Your PantherCash account must be activated in the Panther Card Office (University Bookstore Building, Suite 200) for your card to work.
✵ Add value to your card online, at the Panther Card office, or at the value transfer stations in the Law School Library and across from Panther Pizza in the University Center.

The Library is delighted to announce that it has purchased a major digital collection which supports scholarship at all levels in a large number of disciplines, especially in the Humanities and Social Sciences.

Early English Books Online (EEBO) is now available online via the library’s web page http://www.library.gsu.edu/databases/. EEBO contains digital facsimile page images of virtually every work printed in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and British North America and works in English printed elsewhere from 1473-1700. Coverage in the database starts with the first book printed in English by William Caxton, through the age of Spenser and Shakespeare and the tumult of the English Civil War. Students in many subject areas, including English literature, history, philosophy, linguistics, theology, music, fine arts, education, mathematics, and science will find they are able to fulfill the most exhaustive research requirements, and all from their desktop! Catalog records for these titles will be available in GIL in the near future.

The purchase of EEBO was made possible with funds from the Library’s endowment from the National Endowment for the Humanities and by funds provided by the Provost for continuing expenses. The EEBO purchase will add 125,000 volumes to our collection, thereby increasing the library’s total collection holdings to over 1.5 million volumes.

Can you be more specific? The Scottish Play is too broad a search term.

Library Transformation Grand Opening

When: Thursday, November 15, 2007 at 11 a.m.
Where: Top of the stairs, Library North, 2nd floor

The University Library invites everyone to share in the excitement of our newly transformed Library. Hear remarks from the President, enjoy refreshments, and view the beautifully renovated facilities as a result of our students and donors’ generosity.

T-shirts to the first 100 students who arrive! Food and lots of freebies.

Are you confused about printing in the library?

✵ The entrance to Library North is open!
✵ Starting November 4, the Library will be open on Sundays from 10am-10pm.
✵ Quiet study seating now open on Library North 5.

Comments? Questions? Email us at stalltimes@gsu.edu.