They're a great place to start – you'll find searching tips, key resources and much more. Plus, the renovation of our pages is simple to use and will introduce you to some of our helpful librarians!

REFERENCE-TO-GO

You can get burgers to go. You can get pizza to go. Now you can get your library questions answered to go!

We understand that commuting students only have so much time in between classes, so the week before finals we're bringing the library to you. Librarians will be available for research support on April 13-17, from 12pm to 2pm in the Student Center (across from Burger King). Drop by!

RESEARCH ANYWHERE YOU WANT

Not everyone writes papers in the library, so why should you have to be at the library to get work done? With our Virtual Reference service, you can get research assistance from anywhere: home, work, outdoors or even your local coffee hangout.

We have accounts with AIM, MSN, and Yahoo. Our buddy name on these is gsulibref and we're available to chat with you Monday–Thursday, 10am–10pm and Fridays, 10am–8pm.

Don't have an IM account? You can still chat live with a librarian through the library's homepage; just click the Ask a Librarian link.

Over 3 million people come through the Georgia State University Library's doors each year. It provides the university community with access to extensive information resources; assistance with research; state-of-the-art computer stations; and a comfortable space to meet, learn and relax in.

The Library is truly universal on campus. It is the center that unites the entire university.

BROWSING COLLECTION

These are just a few examples of the books available in our current browsing collection. Check the shelves just to the side of the Library North entrance for more fun reading!
