Over 1.5 million people come through the Georgia State University Library’s doors each year. It provides the university community with access to extensive information resources; assistance with research; state-of-the-art computer stations; and a comfortable space to meet, learn and relax in.

The Library is truly universal on campus. It is the center that unites the entire university.

Due to recent cuts in the library budget, it was necessary to reduce the size of our browsing collection. In order to continue to make leisure reading easy for all of our patrons, we have started a brand new Book Swap program!

The new Book Swap bookshelf is located near the circulation desk in Library North, where patrons can now exchange donated books. Checkout is not required for books on the book swap shelf and these books do not have to be returned. Book donations are encouraged.

Which of these library employees likes European horror movies? Which one loves the Buena Vista Social Club? Find out by visiting our exhibit case on Library North 1, behind the computer help desk. The “Worlds Connect @ Your Library” exhibit is a great way to meet our amazing staff, with recommendations for books, music and DVDs all available here at the library. We even provide call numbers and locations with every review. Take a look and learn about all the great stuff you can check out here!

Red alert! All hands on deck! The library’s hours-of-operation are about to change! (Sorry, maybe we’re overly excited about the new Star Trek movie...). Please check out our updated break hours and summer hours, so that you aren’t surprised when the library is closed. We have posted the full schedule at all of the library’s entrances, as well as on our website at www.library.gsu.edu/hours
