Over 1.5 million people come through the Georgia State University Library’s doors each year. It provides the university community with access to extensive information resources; assistance with research; state-of-the-art computer stations; and a comfortable space to meet, learn and relax in.

The Library is truly universal on campus. It is the center that unites the entire university.

Subject specialist librarians are happy to work one-on-one with you to provide individual research consultations and will even focus on degree related projects and assignments. Find your department’s subject specialist at library.gsu.edu/research.

With so many commuting students at Georgia State, sometimes finding a place to study together or work on group projects is difficult. Try meeting at the library! We have 52 group study rooms that can be quickly reserved from our website.

1. Go to library.gsu.edu
2. Click STUDY ROOMS (under the Library Services column)
3. Click RESERVE A ROOM
4. Login with your CampusID and your password
5. Click MAKE A RESERVATION NOW

Rooms are available for 3 hours/day per CampusID. Remember, your study group must consist of 2 or more people.

Do you need either general writing assistance or ESL tutoring? The Georgia State University Library can provide both for you!

Writing coaches are available to provide constructive criticism, basic grammatical advice, and coaching on the scholastic writing process. While coaches are happy to help you improve your writing, they cannot provide copy-editing or proofreading services.

In addition, the Department of Applied Linguistics and ESL/IEP offer tutoring in the Georgia State University Library on Library North 2. ESL tutoring provides students an opportunity to receive expert assistance in improving their written and oral English skills.

For further information check the tutoring schedule for both services at the Research Support Desk on Library North 2 or online at: library.gsu.edu/learningcommons.

Based on your feedback, the Georgia State University Library has instituted a new Patron Food and Drink Policy. Some new additions to the policy include: no aromatic foods permitted, no deliveries to the library and no group/party foods. Check the full policy on our website at library.gsu.edu.
