Public domain content within a copyrighted work that's not a collective work

- Hamilton, Kenneth. Liszt, Sonata in B Minor. Cambridge University Press, 1996.
 - Parts of this book contains excerpts of public domain content. Can I copy and distribute the public domain portions even though the book is copyrighted?
 - What if a publisher creates a new arrangement of Liszt's sonata? Does the publisher get copyright protection?

True or False

Databases like NLM (National Library of Medicine) and ERIC (Education Resources Information Center) are sponsored by the U.S. government, and therefore, all of their content is in the public domain.
