DEMOGRAPHIC RESOURCE: SOCIAL EXPLORER

ATLANTA 2007 CENSUS TRACT ESTIMATES - MEDIAN HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Are you interested in finding out where the wealthiest people in the Atlanta metro area live? Are you looking for demographic information about a certain neighborhood, county, state or region? The Georgia State University Library provides you with access to Social Explorer which can help you find demographic information such as race, income, educational levels, age, marital status, and more for your neighborhood and other places throughout the United States. With Social Explorer you can easily create maps to display the demographic information that you're interested in. You can access Social Explorer from the library's List of Databases at <http://homer.gsu.edu/search>. Image © 2010 Social Explorer.

ESL/IEP TUTORING

"Learn your language well and command it well, and you will have the first component to life," said famed journalist Edward R. Murrow. If English isn't your first language and you need assistance, you might want to consider a visit to the library. The Georgia State University Library hosts tutoring for Intensive English Learning (IEP) & English as a Second Language (ESL) Monday – Friday. For this semester's schedule, please visit library.gsu.edu/560.html. Walk-in appointments are available on a first-come, first-serve basis on the second floor of Library North. Please contact Dara Suchke, 404-413-5189, esldks@langate.gsu.edu if you would like further details.

Georgia State University Library provides the campus with one of the most attractive, open and inviting educational facilities in the Southeast. It supports research with an expansive collection and outstanding assistance. Its signature bridge is a glass link that overlooks downtown Atlanta, connecting the library's two prominent buildings.
