DIGITAL COLLECTIONS

Curious about popular culture and entertainment news in the 1940s and 1950s? Love the glamorous style of the era? Check out the Margaret Whiting scrapbooks in the Library's Digital Collections! Selected for digitization from Special Collections and Archives' Popular Music and Culture Collection, these scrapbooks contain news clippings (as well as photos, programs and ephemera) assembled by Margaret Whiting's mother documenting her daughter's singing and acting career as depicted in various entertainment magazines and newspapers. You can explore the scrapbooks and other digitized resources from Special Collections and Archives at <http://digitalcollections.library.gsu.edu>.

RESOURCES & SERVICES

DIGITIZING SERVICES

Have material related to your research or academics that you'd like digitized? The library is now offering limited digitization services to faculty, staff, and graduate students at GSU! Under the Information for You tab on the Library's homepage, find your category and look for the Specialized Library Equipment link for more information.

BROWZINE

An app that allows you to browse, read and monitor many of the library's scholarly journals in a "newsstand" format.

- Browse and read journals by subject, easily review tables of contents, and download full articles.
- Create your own personalized bookshelf.
- Find BrowZine in the Apple App, Google Play or Amazon App store and download it for free.
